Nunc ut lectus

Nunsense was Habit Forming

ACTS kicked off the new performance season with the heavenly musical comedy that united faith and farce. Directed by Don Struck, music direction by Justin Ray, Nunsense united the talents of the veteran ACTS ladies in pitch perfect casting. Even the “plain clothes nuns” in the audience were pealing with laughter. No divine intervention was needed to make this show an ACTS hit!

Westminster Celebrity Series

On October 6th, members of ACTS were lucky enough to be audience members for “Defying Gravity: Stephen Schwartz and Friends.” Schwartz, an award winning composer, penned the music for the Broadway blockbuster Wicked as well as Godspell, Pippin, Children of Eden, Rags, and The Bakers Wife as well as the films The Prince of Egypt, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, and Pocahontas. ACTS members Mark Nelson, Susan Piccirilli, Krystal Miller, Justin Ray, Maria Ackley, Miriam Necastro, and John, Susan and Miranda Woge were lucky enough to meet Mr. Schwartz and his “friends” Scott Coulter and Tony Award winner Debbie Gravitte.

Call for Volunteers

The board of directors is putting out the call for volunteer assistance on our future productions. Without the help of volunteers, performance nights cannot run smoothly. We are looking for volunteers to fill the roles of

- Ushers
- chair operator
- ticket scanner
- refreshment sales
- 50/50 sales

Volunteers also receive one (1) complimentary ticket for that evening/matinee performance.

To volunteer for Christmas at the Pierce front of house staff please email actsharpville@gmail.com or call (742)-815-4388.
